

EDUCATOR'S GUIDE TO CIRCLE OF RESPECT

Share this!

Get Involved!

New Program Helps Promote Respect in the Schools

The National Crime Prevention Council has introduced the Circle of Respect, a comprehensive campaign to protect young people from bullying, a growing problem that research shows can lead to future violence and criminal activity.

Learn more about bringing your school into the Circle of Respect

Special Message to School Administrators, Educators, and Counselors

For too long bullying has been considered almost a rite of passage, widely believed to be part of growing up... The Circle of Respect's objective is to break the cycle, encouraging the use of respect to manage conflict and prevent violent and criminal behavior.

Read More

Grades K-6

Coping Successfully with Bullying: Samantha's Choice

McGruff the Crime Dog stars in a new video that presents anti-bullying strategies to today's elementary school students in an effective and entertaining way.

Read More

Circle of Respect Book Club

Explore this invaluable resource for students, teachers, and parents that provides a year-round method of reinforcing the Circle of Respect's message.

Read More

Middle School / High School

Coming soon: Circle of Respect Voices

NCPC is launching an exciting new component that allows young people's voices to be heard.

Find Out More

About the National Crime Prevention Council

Champions & Sponsors

This project was supported by Grant No. 2009-D1-BX-K001 awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance. The Bureau of Justice Assistance is a component of the Office of Justice Programs, which also includes the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the National Institute of Justice, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the SMART Office, and the Office for Victims of Crime. Points of view or opinions in this document are those of the author and do not represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.

National Crime Prevention Council: 2001 Jefferson Davis Highway, Suite 901, Arlington, VA 22202